MARKET VIEW

Sucorinvest Maxi Fund (SMF) posted a performance of -1.02% in November 2018. This performance is slightly below the benchmark due to the ongoing US and Chinese trade wars that put pressure on commodity prices. As of year-to-date, SMF posted a performance of 14.10%, outperform the benchmark by 18.81%. Going forward, we are still positive mainly as US and China agreed to adjourn the trade war so we are remain optimistic on banking and commodity sectors.
